Angela Greeson has been an Amarillo community softball advocate for the past 17 years. She started coaching softball in 2008 with a High Plains league draft team. She coached sixteen kids that went on to play college softball. Eleven of those kids played at the DI/DII level. Three players were standout starters on the NCAA D2 WTAMU National Championship team.

Angela played college basketball for Western Texas Junior College and WTAMU. She has been a coach in the Amarillo area for 30 years. She was the Athletic Director, Varsity Basketball Coach, and Varsity Golf Coach at River Road High school for 16 years. For the past 14 years, Angela has been a volleyball, basketball, and track coach at Bonham middle school.

Angela is married to Billy Greeson who recently retired from the Amarillo Fire Department. They have 3 children. Sydney Trayler won a National Championship in softball at WTAMU and is currently the head softball coach at Borger High School. Jacob Greeson is a sophomore playing football at ENMU. Skylar is a middle school student at Bonham Middle School.
